

Consulate General of India
Belfast

Solemnization of marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act, 1969

(A) Overview:

Applicants have to apply in person for Solemnization of Marriage. Marriages between two individuals can be solemnized at the Consulate General of India (CGI), Belfast under the Foreign Marriage Act, 1969. At least one of the parties to the intended marriage should be a citizen of India and should have resided in the UK for a period of not less than thirty days immediately preceding the date on which the notice of intended marriage is given to the Marriage Officer at the CGI, Belfast.

Please Note: This facility is primarily meant for those Indian citizens who want to ensure that their marriage is recognized as valid in India. The fact that a marriage is valid under India's Foreign Marriage Act and that it is recognized as such in India does not necessarily mean that it will be recognized by the authorities in the UK. For knowing the validity of the Marriage Certificate under the laws of the United Kingdom, applicant may approach the relevant authorities in the United Kingdom.

(B) Jurisdiction:

Consulate General of India, Belfast serves applicants from the Northern Ireland.

(C) Process/Guideline/Clarifications:
